Live in San Diego

Who wouldn't want to live and work in America's finest city? Famous for its white-sand beaches, warm weather and active lifestyle, San Diego is also known as the "Birthplace of California."

We are one of the top ranked Life Science and Biosciences locations in the United States, and with more than 80 educational and research institutes in the region, we attract some of the world's most brilliant medical minds. In fact, we were the only North American city to be named one of the "World's Smart Cities" by National Geographic magazine.

We are also one of the most diverse cities in America. More than 100 languages are spoken by San Diego residents who have moved here from all across the globe.
